

PRINCE2 Foundation and Practitioner Certification Exam Training

Trainees from Cambodian partner universities

University of Battambang (UBB)

Sam Rany

samrany@ubb.edu.kh

Dr. Sam Rany is a Vice-Rector of the University of Battambang. He also works as Assessor at the Accreditation Committee of Cambodia and until 2017 held the position of Director of the Institute of Foreign Languages at the University of Battambang. He is a project facilitator at UBB of several international projects funded by European Commission including TACTIC project.

Morin Tieng

morintieng@gmail.com

Mr Morin Tieng works as Dean of Faculty of Business Administration and Tourism. He has 15 years working experience in the higher education sphere with staff both from administrative and management areas. His project-related work includes managing the Business Center Service project with Save the Children by US Aid and coordinating the Women Entrepreneurship project between UBB and Sydney University.

Vannarath Ly

vannarathly@yahoo.com

Mr. Vannarath Ly is the Chief of Internal Quality Assurance Office at UBB and also State Lecturer of English, certificated in TESOL at the University of Canberra, Australia. In 2017, he was awarded of 13th Annual CamTESOL Regional ELT Research Grants Program in Phnom Penh.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

Mean Chey University

Kong Vannak

k.vannak1978@gmail.com

Dr. Kong Vannak is the current Dean of Faculty of Agriculture and Food Processing at MCU, responsible among other things for faculty curriculum development, fund raising for research projects from donors/government, and collaboration with various local institutions and organisations for national training programs. Between 2013 – 2016 he was a sub-project manager in High Education Quality and Capacity Improvement Project (HEQCIP).

Sovankunthearos Chum

sothearos@yahoo.com

As Vice-Dean of Faculty of Social Sciences and Community Development, Dr. Sothearos Chum is involved in various tasks including: management of administrative issues of the faculty, leading and managing staff and lecturers, teaching methodology, timing, and research and development; monitoring and evaluation of the staff.

Penh Sophea

sopheapenh79@gmail.com

Mr. Sophea Penh works as Vice-Dean of Faculty of Science and Technology. His main responsibilities include managing administrative affairs of the faculty, leading and managing staff and lecturers, as well as monitoring and evaluation of their work, overseeing academic planning, curriculum development, and monitoring all the course syllabi to match with job markets.

