

Violeta Osouchová

osouchova@czs.muni.cz

Since 2014, Mrs. Violeta Osouchová is Deputy Director and Head of Division for Strategy and International Marketing of the Centre for International Cooperation at Masaryk University. Her responsibilities include overall management and monitoring of annual work plans and the budget of the CIC, planning and implementation of the university strategy for internationalization, international cooperation and bilateral agreements of Masaryk University (MU) with a particular focus on partners outside Europe, university's strategies for International Marketing and the recruitment of international students, coordination of 8 Erasmus and Erasmus+ projects and management and leadership for the teams of the division, among many others. For short time she served as the Acting Director of the CIC. For 7 years (2001 – 2008) she was a part of CIC's Financial Division, at first as an economist (2001 – 2005), responsible for the financial flows and preparation of financial reports and audits, later as the Head of the Financial Division whose work also included responsibility for all the finances of the CIC and its budget or compliance with and monitoring of project budgets. Beside her professional experience at the CIC, she is a qualified Expert of Joint Degree (trainer in joint degree programs) and holds Certification in Accounting and Finance from European Management Accountants Association.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union